

Name of service/organisation:

The Ponderosa Rural Therapeutic Centre

Description:

The Ponderosa Centre is a rural therapeutic centre aimed at bridging the gap between people with disabilities and able bodied people.

There are lots of animals to see, including llamas, pigs, emus, reindeer, meercats, birds of prey, peacocks, a reptile room and a petting barn, coffee shop & ice cream parlour, restaurant, a beach, pony rides, nature trail, aquatic area, play area and more. Group visits and children's parties can be catered for.

As well as a fun place to visit, it provides opportunities for employment, skills development, the development of horticulture, agriculture and social skills.

The centre is accessible for wheelchairs.

Client group intended for:

Social activity for children with disabilities and special needs. Also provides activities and day care service for adults with disabilities.

Phone number: 01924 235276

Email address: info@ponderosa-centre.co.uk

Website: www.ponderosa-park.co.uk/centre

Address: Ponderosa Park, Off Smithies Lane
Heckmondwike
West Yorkshire
WF16 0PN

Opening times: As of September 2013 the centre is open to the general public at weekends and for group bookings during the week. Please check their website for up to date details.

PCAN

ACTIVITIES & LEISURE

PCAN Pages

Really useful information for parents of children with additional needs in Kirklees

Website www.pcankirklees.org Call 07754 102336 Email info@pcankirklees.org